

Anthropology Graduate Program (IDIS)

Admission Guidelines

Applications to the interdisciplinary Studies Program are considered for the September admission period only. Therefore, the deadline for the receipt of completed applications is February 15. An applicant's undergraduate qualifications will be evaluated as one of the principal determinants of his/her preparation to successfully complete the chosen course of studies and thesis research. To be considered for entry, an applicant must:

- hold a four-year baccalaureate degree, and
- have achieved a CPA of at least 3.33 on the most recently completed 60 credit hours.

Applicants may wish to consult with the Dean of Graduate Studies prior to applying for the Interdisciplinary Studies program. The Dean of Graduate Studies may advise the applicant to apply to an existing Program, or may advise the applicant to contact members of the faculty who may have interests suitable to the course of study the applicant wishes to pursue.

Persons seeking admission in MA Interdisciplinary Studies Program should apply directly to the Office of the Registrar. An Interdisciplinary MA Committee will evaluate applications to the MA option. The committee will consist of at least three faculty members and is chaired by the Dean of Graduate Studies.

Before the committee will consider an application, the applicant must have:

- a proposed thesis supervisor, and
- approved by the proposed supervisor and the proposed supervisory committee, the courses which are to be taken.

The applicant must submit a completed application, including the research proposal, to the Office of the Registrar before the deadlines. This proposal must adhere to the Guidelines for Preparing a Research Proposal.
