PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION CAREFULLY BEFORE COMPLETING YOUR APPLICATION:

- A. Please fill out the application completely and legibly. Some common errors that could result in a delay in the processing of your application are:
- incorrect Personal Education Number (PEN) provided by current BC High School Students;
 - application form not signed;
 - illegible information on the application;
 - application submitted after the application deadline.

B. Deadlines for Application

For application deadlines, please see the Semester Dates section of the UNBC Calendar or check online at www.unbc.ca/calendar/undergraduate/.

C. Fees

Application Fee (non-refundable*):

- $35 for Canadian and Permanent Resident applicants.
- $75 for International applicants.

Document Evaluation Fee (non-refundable*):

- $40 for applicants whose transcripts originate from a post-secondary institution outside of British Columbia and/or any secondary school outside of Canada. This fee is in addition to the Application Fee.

*All fees are non-refundable and must accompany the Application for Admission/Re-admission in order for it to be processed. Please make all cheques or money orders payable to the "University of Northern British Columbia". DO NOT send cash through the mail.

D. Documents

Provisional offers of admission may be made using unofficial transcripts/documents (this is not applicable to international students), and will be finalized when official documents are received. All documents submitted in support of an Application for Admission/Re-admission become the property of the University of Northern British Columbia, and will not be returned to the applicant or provided to other institutions.

E. Immigration Status

Completion of the Immigration Status section is MANDATORY. If this section is not completed, your application form will be returned to you unprocessed. (See "Personal Information", Section 1F.)

F. English Language Proficiency

Applicants whose first language is not English must submit evidence of English language proficiency prior to admission; acceptable evidence may be any one of: TOEFL, IELTS, LPI, CAEL, or English 12. In order to be considered valid, these scores must be sent directly from the testing agency/institution to the Office of the Registrar.

For further details, please consult the Admissions section of the UNBC Undergraduate Calendar.

G. Web/Fax

Applications can be completed and submitted online at www.unbc.ca/apply. As well, applications, related information, and documents may be submitted by fax to the Office of the Registrar at (250) 960-6330.

H. Disability Services

If you have a disability and believe that you will require support services during your program, please contact UNBC Disability Services at (250) 960-5682.

The University of Northern British Columbia reserves the right to limit enrolment in any Faculty, Program or course. Course offerings may be subject to sufficient demand, and not all Programs are available at every campus.

10. COMPLETE ONLY IF CURRENTLY ATTENDING A BC HIGH SCHOOL AND HAVE NOT PREVIOUSLY GRADUATED

Instructions:

You may wish to seek assistance from your school counsellor when completing Academic History (Section 5) and the Statement on the Self-Declaration of Grades (below). It is important that you complete these sections accurately, as provisional admission decisions will be made based upon your self-declared grades. Such decisions are subject to the following:

- receipt of your final official grades from the Ministry of Education;
- successful graduation from Grade 12;
- successful completion of the required five Grade 12 courses; and
- a satisfactory overall average in the courses used for admission (please refer to the Calendar).

STATEMENT ON THE SELF-DECLARATION OF GRADES

An assessment will be completed of your Application for Admission/Re-admission based upon your self-declared grades. All offers of admission will be provisional, and subject to review upon receipt of mid-term and final grade information from the Ministry of Education. Students who do not meet the University's admission requirements based on their final results will normally have their provisional offer of admission to UNBC withdrawn.
