Application Process

All students interested in participating in this program are to submit a complete application package by the application deadline below.

Applications will be evaluated to ensure all requirements for participation are met.

All applicants that meet all the criteria will be given a short interview to determine suitability in the program.

On review of all applications, students will be issued a letter of admission to the program of study. In order to confirm participation in the program, students must respond to the offer in writing (by mail, fax or in person) indicating their acceptance of the offer, and must include full payment to secure their seat.

Application Deadline

Terrace, BC February 24, 2012

Quesnel, BC April 6, 2012

Prince George, BC May 4, 2012

Registration Form

All students are to submit a completed registration form.

Essay

This fully funded four month program has limited seats available, so to help us ensure participants are committed for the duration of the program we are requiring all applicants to show commitment by writing a 1500 word essay on a topic of their choice. The essay will not be graded, but is mandatory and must be submitted prior to the application deadline.

Application Checklist:

Incomplete applications will not be accepted.

Please ensure you include the following with your application:

- Completed Registration Form
- 1500 word essay on a topic of your choice.
- Completed ESA Eligibility worksheet
