

School of Business
College of Science and Management

Assistant/Associate Professor in Accounting (Tenure-track Position)

The School of Business of the University of Northern British Columbia invites applications for a tenure track position in Accounting at the rank of Assistant/Associate Professor with an anticipated start date of July 1, 2012.

The School of Business offers three degrees: A Bachelor of Commerce with majors in Accounting, Finance, Human Resources Management, International Business, Marketing and General Business, MSc in Business Administration, and an executive MBA program. The University of Northern British Columbia is a small, research intensive university with an enrolment of over 3,000 students in more than 40 undergraduate and graduate programs. UNBC has a strong mandate for growth and a beautiful, comprehensive campus. UNBC is committed to research and teaching excellence, and provides strong support for faculty to develop their scholarly capabilities. The School of Business offers a collegial and participative environment for Faculty and Staff (see for more information: School of Business)

The successful candidate will possess a PhD in any area of Accounting. Applicants will be evaluated on their potential for and/or record of excellence in research, teaching, and service. Candidates at the Associate rank should have demonstrated a strong record of high-quality performance in each of these three areas. The successful candidate will be expected to develop a productive externally funded research program in one of the areas of Accounting that complements current scholarly activity in the School of Business and preferably entails collaboration with current faculty. Information that describes the research focus of the current faculty can be located at: <http://www.unbc.ca/commerce/faculty>.

Located in north-central British Columbia, Prince George is a city of 80,000 people with broad cultural, educational, and recreational amenities. The city is home to a symphony orchestra, professional theatre, a WHL hockey team, a community college, and the University. The region also offers exceptional skiing, canoeing and kayaking, fly-fishing, hiking, and mountain biking. The lakes, forests and mountains of northern and central British Columbia offer an unparalleled natural environment in which to live and work. Housing and cost of living are very affordable. For more information about the city of Prince George please consult www.unbc.ca/northernbc.

Applicants should forward their curriculum vitae and the names and addresses of three references (including telephone, fax, and email information) quoting competition #FABU01-12 to: The Office of the Provost, University of Northern British Columbia, 3333 University Way, Prince George, B.C., V2N 4Z9. Fax: (250) 960-5791. Please direct inquiries to: Dr. Steven Cronshaw, Acting Chair of the School of Business, at Telephone (250) 960-6785, Email <cronshaw@unbc.ca>. This position is being advertised subject to budgetary approval. Electronic submissions of CVs can be forwarded to: FacultyRecruitment@unbc.ca.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. The University of Northern British Columbia is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from women, aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities and members of visible minorities.

Applications received on or before February 15, 2012, will receive full consideration; however applications will be accepted until the position is filled.