

Polysomnographic (Sleep) Technologist – BC

A great opportunity for those looking for a career in the growing healthcare field of sleep medicine.

MedSleep's national network of clinics are committed to providing the highest quality sleep services across Canada. Learn more about us at www.medsleep.com.

Position Description:

This role requires a 12 month work commitment post hands-on training completion.

- The Polysomnographic Technologist ensures the proper performance of all procedures relating to the accurate, safe operation of all diagnostic and therapeutic polysomnographic services provided by our clinics.
- You will be provided with a variety of dynamic learning opportunities in order to advance your knowledge in the field.
- This role involves direct patient contact including describing the procedures, setting-up the patient for the overnight study, addressing questions, resolving technical or equipment issues and monitoring the sleep study throughout the evening.

Position Qualifications:

- Relevant post secondary education -- BSc in Sciences, BSc or BA in Psychology, Registered Respiratory Care Practitioners Therapist, Registered Practical Nurse, College Degree in Health Care/Medical Technology, Registered EEG Technologist, Registered Pulmonary Function Technologist.
- Ability to work night shifts, 10.5 hours per shift, up to 3 nights per week and weekends-must be able to work weekends
- Strong communication and troubleshooting skills, and ability to work independently.
- A focus on high quality patient care. Enthusiasm for learning.

Submit your cover letter and resume to jobs@medsleep.com