As part of my application for employment with Sodexo Canada Inc. (the "Company"), I agree to the following provisions.

1. I certify that all information which I have provided to the Company in my written application and in interviews is true, accurate and complete. I understand that the Company is relying on the information provided by me to determine my suitability for employment.
2. I understand and agree that any information provided by me which is found by the Company to be false, incomplete or misrepresented in any way will be sufficient cause to either discontinue further consideration of my application for employment or to terminate my employment without notice for cause, regardless of when such falsehood, incompleteness or misrepresentation is discovered.
3. I understand that the process of consideration for employment involves a thorough investigation by the Company of myself to determine my suitability for employment, including obtaining personal information from my references, prior employers and education institutions which I have attended and validating any licences which are required for employment. I authorize the Company to collect and use such personal information for the purposes of determining my suitability for employment and to manage the employment relationship if I am hired.
4. I consent to those persons and entities named in my application form releasing personal information about me to the Company for it to use for the purpose of determining my suitability for employment and to manage the employment relationship if I am hired.
5. I consent to the disclosure to the Company of my criminal record as part of a criminal records check.
6. I consent to the disclosure to the Company of my drivers license abstract.
7. I understand that nothing in this statement or my application for employment constitutes an offer of employment or a contract or agreement of employment.
