Pacific Community Resources
Employment Service Centre
Case Worker
Auxiliary

PCRS is seeking an energetic, experienced Auxiliary Employment Case Worker to work with a dynamic multi-agency service delivery team at our Employment Service Centre in the Fleetwood/Guildford area (may include Langley, Richmond and Surrey locations as well). The successful applicant will provide case management services to youth ages 16-30 and/or multi-barriered clients. Applicants will be experienced with employment related goal setting, case management, organizing and delivering workshops. The Case Worker is responsible for assessing clients and providing them with case management services and resource centre support. Services include, but are not limited to, administering needs assessment, identifying client tier, developing collaborative Action Plans with clients, facilitating group workshops and monitoring and reporting client progress utilizing the Ministry provided ICM (Integrated Case Management System). Demonstrated familiarity with local community and employment resources is required. This position is part of a full range Employment Service Centre and while the primary duties describe outline the core work, adaptability to meeting other service needs as they emerge will be required.

Case Workers will need to be familiar with the new Employment Program. They will have a thorough knowledge of theoretical counselling and career development methodologies, be familiar with the Canadian Standards and Guidelines for Career Practitioners, and have in depth knowledge of employment initiatives. Applicants must demonstrate an excellent level of written and verbal communication skills, organization skills and demonstrate accuracy and attention to details.

Successful applicants will have a BA in a related field plus 1 year of Employment/Career Counselling experience with youth and/or multi-barriered clients OR a Career Development Practitioner Certificate plus 3 years experience working with youth in a related field.
