

Canada and NATO in an Uncertain World

March 28, 2025

With a new American President and growing instability across the globe, Canada's role in NATO has never been under more scrutiny or had such importance. The discussion will focus on the challenges facing Canada and how membership in NATO and our contributions to the Alliance are essential to our values and our interests.

When: Friday, March 28 from 12pm to 1:30pm
Where: In person room 7-152 or Zoom
