We pride ourselves on our team of diverse, high performing PwC Professionals who are talented, supportive, inclusive and social – and who are at the heart of our success. From day one at our firm you'll be considered part of the PwC community and our global development and career progression framework will help you develop the skills and capabilities you need to succeed.

The role

PwC's Assurance professionals understand how businesses work from the inside. With more than 2,500 Assurance professionals in 26 cities across Canada, working closely with public and private companies, we help solve complex business issues faced by management and boards, and serve the public interest by supporting the capital markets system through reliable financial reporting.

Our teams ask questions, test assumptions and evaluate whether companies are reporting information upon which investors and others can rely on. We combine deep technical skills and sector experience to help our clients address the challenges of a rapidly changing environment and strengthen their businesses.

As an Associate working towards your CPA designation you'll be put at the heart of understanding how businesses operate. You'll add credibility to the assertions of management about the financial condition and performance of a company, while using leading-edge technology (such as Aura, Halo and Connect). This ensures you're at the forefront of how audits are delivered to clients.

What you'll benefit from

We value our people and we want to help you thrive. PwC's focus on continuous learning will introduce you to our unique Enhanced Working Practices (EWPs) and ensure you build your credentials – fast. We believe in investing in our staff and understand that you have a life outside the office. In fact, we encourage it.

Take advantage of our fitness benefit to cover a gym membership or join one of our firm's sports teams; reward your coworkers with Acclaim points and use the ones you earn towards purchasing items on your wish list; join one of our Employee Resource Groups to network with like-minded clients and colleagues; work flexibly to accommodate a trip you've been looking forward to; or use your paid volunteer day to bond with your team mates and contribute to an organization you're passionate about.
