

University from Home

Online or distance courses can be just as challenging as on-campus courses, but with the added challenge of creating your own structure and schedule each day. Use this resource as a checklist for reach online course to help stay on track.

Online Studying Checklist

Get Ready

- ☐ Get dressed and ready for the day. This helps put you in a study mindset.
- ☐ Prepare your study space and materials (e.g., books, online access).
- ☐ Create a quiet environment by removing distractions
 - Set boundaries and notify family or roommates you're unavailable.
 - Turn off phone notifications, or even put your phone out of sight.
 - o If helpful, consider using a time or app to help you focus
 - Keep your study space clear of unrelated items.

Structure Your Time

- ☐ Schedule class and study time as if you were on campus.
- ☐ Set aside time for new material and review.
- ☐ Write down exam dates and plan extra study sessions leading up to _ an exam
- Contact your instructor for clarification and ask questions.

Be realistic with your time.

- Balance responsibilities. Ensure you take time for yourself and family.
- Avoid extremes. Too little study time can cause stress, while too much may cause burnout.

Always monitor yourself and adjust your schedule as needed.

The Academic Success Centre provides free content, study skills and writing tutoring for UNBC students.

To learn more, scan the QR code, or visit the ASC, located in the Library Learning Commons (5-139G).

opular

 App_S

Forest Offtime

Online or Take-Home Exam Checklist

Be familiar with the format.

- ☐ Some exam platforms will allow you to go back and edit questions, while others consider your answer final as soon as you move to the next question. Make sure you know which one you are dealing with!
- ☐ Ensure you have a compatible browser for the exam platform

Back-up your work.

☐ Consider writing draft long answer responses in a word processor before copying your response into the exam answer field.

Know the rules.

- ☐ Confirm the start and end times for the exam.
- ☐ Ensure you know what materials are permitted.
- ☐ If you require a specific software, ensure you download it in advance and test it before the exam.

Prepare a quiet space.

- ☐ Same as when studying, ensure all distractions are removed and your family or roommates are aware and mindful of your needs during the exam.
- ☐ If using a laptop, have the power cord plugged in!

Even though you have access to your notes and textbooks, don't assume you can skip studying. Open book exams often have higher expectations and require a deep understanding of the material.

Study thoroughly: You	ou'll need to apply	concepts, not	iust look them up
-----------------------	---------------------	---------------	-------------------

\Box	Organize vour	materials.	Highlight ke	v points and	create a	auick-reference	"cheat sheet"
1 1	OLUBILIZE VUUL	materiais.	I HUHHUH K	v bullits and	i Cicale a	uulch-leieleile	CHEAL SHEEL.

☐ Manage your time: Exam limits won't allow for constant flipping through notes.

☐ Eliminate distractions: Turn off your phone or keep it in another room.

The Academic Success Centre provides free content, study skills and writing tutoring for UNBC students.

To learn more, scan the QR code, or visit the ASC, located in the Library Learning Commons (5-139G).

