

Program Planning Guide

Bachelor of Planning: Natural Resources Planning

YOUR COURSE PLANNING: This worksheet has been created as a guide for admitted students. Note, your course planning may look different than another student; this worksheet has been designed for students wishing to complete their program within a four-year timeline. Students may elect to take part-time studies or a reduced course load. Refer to the Undergraduate Academic Regulations within the Undergraduate Calendar for more information.

For requirements that have a “pick list” (i.e. choose one of) please visit the Undergraduate Calendar to see a detailed list. The list or requirements may change, so please ensure you follow the appropriate requirements (the 2025-2026 Undergraduate Calendar). After July 1, 2025, you can find the calendar in a PDF format.

BREADTH REQUIREMENT: Breadth is not required for this program.

UNDERGRADUATE CALENDAR: It is the student's responsibility to be aware of all University of Northern British Columbia Undergraduate Calendar regulations. Academic regulations, program information, course information, and pre-requisites can be found in this document.

*Studio courses involve 6 hours of in class time per week. The program recommends taking one studio course in a term. Where two studio courses are taken in one term, the program recommends reducing course load to four total courses.

EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 2025

NOTE: Although every attempt has been made to ensure the information on this worksheet is accurate, in the case of any discrepancy the Academic Calendar shall be considered the authority. This program planning worksheet is an unofficial planning tool for students new to UNBC and for students in a non-competitive entry program. Once your program has been declared, please use your degree evaluation as it is the official degree program-tracking document. You can find more information about your degree evaluation and how to run one at unbc.ca/advising.

Course Notes

- These courses need not necessarily be taken in the sequence as indicated. We strongly recommend completing lower division requirements in the first two years of the program.
- Students should consult with the Undergraduate Calendar for course descriptions and pre/co-requisites.
- Students interested in Research Methods in First Nations (FNST 300) should use an elective in year two to take the pre-requisite (FNST 200).
- ENPL 415 and ENPL 417 are normally offered in alternating years (Fall). Students should try to take these classes when offered.
- ENPL 411 is normally offered in the Fall of odd years. Students take this course as soon as fall of 3rd year.
- ENPL 404 is offered every Even Year Winter. Students should take this course as soon as Winter of their 3rd year.
- For the past few years, POLS 350 has been offered in the summer every two years (condensed, two-month format). Students should try to take this class when offered.

Students can apply for a Student Membership in the Planning Institute of British Columbia.

Advisor Notes

STUDENT ADVISING: Is available by phone, email, or in person. To book an appointment, or to see when drop-ins are scheduled, please contact advising@unbc.ca or call 250.960.6306.

DEGREE EVALUATIONS: The Degree Evaluation is an interpretation of the Undergraduate Calendar for the year that you were admitted and helps display the requirements needed for your program.

DOUBLE MAJORS: Students who are considering a double major should speak with their Student Advisor as soon as possible. Note, BPI students are permitted to double major only within their degree program.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT: Students must complete a minimum of 30 credit hours of upper division UNBC course work to receive a UNBC degree.

TIME LIMIT: Except by permission of the Dean, students must complete their undergraduate degree program within 15 years of their first semester of registration.
