BCPARF 2018

Is dedicated to the memory of two tireless conservation advocates

Juri Peepre

On May 13, 2018 we lost a passionate and courageous leader of the environmental community. Juri drew the blueprint for conservation efforts in the Yukon over his twenty-five years working for the protection of its wild landscape. He founded CPAWS

Yukon and launched the Three Rivers project that ultimately lead to protection of most of the Peel Watershed. His work was crucial in the protection of Tombstone Territorial Park. He was an avid canoeist and coauthored "Wild Rivers of the Yukon's Peel Watershed" with his wife Sarah.

He served on the Federal Panel for the Ecological Integrity of Canada's National Parks receiving the J.B. Harkin Award for Conservation in 2010 with fellow panel members. When Juri and Sarah relocated to the Columbia Valley he embraced that landscape and joined Wildsight as the Chair of the Board of Directors in 2010. Juri received the Order of Canada in 2014 in recognition of his lifetime contribution to conservation.

Juri has left us with inspiration and a legacy of conservation of wild places and leaves behind a tremendous legacy of conservation and a vision that lives on in the hearts of his many friends and colleagues across western Canada.

Chloe O'Loughlin

On November 17, 2017, CPAWS and the environmental community lost Chloe O'Loughlin, a powerful advocate for wilderness conservation, and former CPAWS-BC staff member, volunteer, advocate and friend. She passed away on the weekend after fighting a battle with an aggressive cancer, which was only diagnosed in September. In a testament to her strength, Chloe was unknowingly battling cancer for many years while never scaling down her fight for the places she loved, like the South

Okanagan-Similkameen. She is missed by the people she worked with and the places she fought to protect.

In 9 years as Executive Director at CPAWS-BC she led the organization through many victories including: the 2006 launch of SeaChoice; the 2008 establishment of Sgaan Kinghlas Bowie Seamount Marine Protected Area; the 2011 launch of the Get Outside BC program; and work in 2011 with the Taku River Tlingit and BC government to support a land use plan with more than 500,000 ha of protected areas.

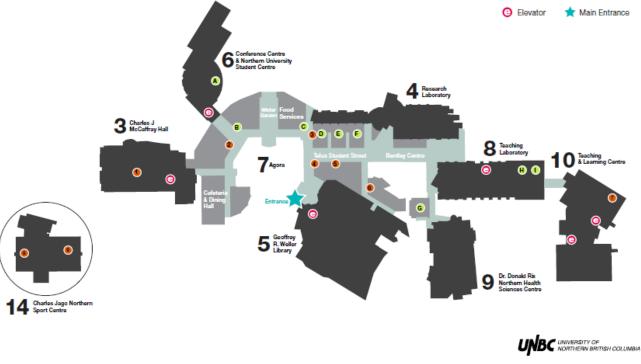

"Chloe taught us all to never let go of a vision," said Bruce Passmore, the Executive Director of CPAWS-BC. "She will be missed by many. We will toast to her memory when the South Okanagan Similikameen National Park Reserve becomes a reality. May she rest knowing that her legacy will continue."

Prince George Campus Building Directory

Room numbers include building code prefixes. For example, room 5-152 is located in the Geoffrey R. Weller Library (Building 5), and room 8-322 is located in the Teaching Laboratory (Building 8).

The first number after the building code prefix indicates the floor level on which the room is located. For example, room 10-4520 is located on the fourth floor in the Teaching and Learning Centre (Building 10).
