

Housing Solutions for Changing Communities

Passive Housing Workshop

Rob Bernhardt

Chief Executive Officer

Passive House Canada/Maison Passive Canada

As CEO of Passive House Canada, Rob works to advance building energy efficiency. A certified Passive House consultant, and the developer of several certified Passive House projects, Rob is familiar with the economic and social advantages of high performance buildings. As a participant in numerous policy development initiatives, he is familiar with the challenges facing regulators as they seek to meet climate change objectives. Rob works with Passive House Canada's members, governments and industry organizations to make high performance buildings the norm.

Passive House Canada is Canada's non-profit professional association and community of experts in the Passive House (Passivhaus) high performance building standard.