

Housing Solutions for Changing Communities

“Aging in Place: Opportunities for New Construction and Renovation” Workshop

Shelley Sim

Councillor

District of Clearwater

Born and raised in Vancouver, Shelley moved to Clearwater in 1993. Shelley is the primary Owner and Managing Director of Original Holidays Inc. and she has over 20 years tourism and business experience.

Cited as an active and engaged community member, Shelley is serving her second term as Councillor to the District of Clearwater and is a champion of seniors programs within the North Thompson Valley. As a member of the Age Friendly Committee, she has furthered issues and concerns that relate to seniors, mobility issues and heightened awareness on how Council and the community can implement strategies on helping seniors age in place.

Having been involved with the UNBC Seniors Mobility Project “From Front Door to Grocery Store”, Shelley helps raise awareness of seniors needs within a rural community and helps draft policy that will guide community growth and direction including addressing transportation needs and social reforms and programs.
