

Wildlife Dangerous Tree Assessor Certificate – Wildland Fire Safety Module Pre-Reading Study Guide

Course Manual Topics	Page
Course Goals and Objectives	2
What is a wildlife tree?	3
Processes of tree death and decay	4
Wildlife tree classification system (decay classes)	6
What is a Dangerous Tree?	9
Step 1: Conduct a site assessment overview	11
Build-up Index (BUI)	12
Step 2: Determine Level of Disturbance (VLR, Low, Medium, High)	13
Wind influence	14
Patrolling in burned stands	15
Step 3: Conduct a tree assessment	16
Generalized tree defects or indicators	17
Root conditions	20
Dangerous tree criteria for each LOD	22
Step 4: Determine safety ratings & appropriate procedures	27
Summary of Assessment requirements	28
Assessing roadside trees	29
No Work Zones	30
Field marking guidance - trees and areas	36
Guidelines for keeping or removing dangerous trees	37
Step 5: Provide Documentation	38
Reassessment	39
Large fire operations and DT Specialists	40
Additional Study Aids
Course manual: Glossary and Appendices
Course field cards can be reviewed prior to attending (FS502b)
DT Management in preparation for silviculture (general overview pamphlet)
WDT Awareness - a safety guide for logging operations (overview pamphlet)
Guidebooks for tree species and wildlife Identification (websites, libraries)	