

GLOBAL THURSDAY PRESENTS

“A Cup of Social Justice: Fair Trade Coffee & Land Reform in Guatemala”

GUEST SPEAKER: LESBIA MORALES SICÁN

The Campesino Committee of the Highlands (CCDA) is making a difference in the struggle for land rights and survival for Guatemalan campesino/small farmer families.

Lesbia Morales Sicán is a member of the CCDA's National Executive, Women's Economic Development Coordinator & responsible for production / marketing of Café Justicia, the fair trade coffee produced by CCDA farmers & exported to Canadian consumers. Lesbia will speak of her experiences & also screen the new CCDA 22-min. documentary: 'Madre Tierra'

Date: November 12, 2009

Room: 7-152

Time: 2:30 pm – 4:00 pm

Co-sponsored by the following programs: Geography,
Economics, Women's Studies, History & First Nations Studies

