 - (b) Once a motion is moved and seconded, the mover of the motion may speak to it and answer questions from the floor of Senate.
 - (c) Before debate has begun, a motion may be withdrawn by its mover. (Note that a motion on the agenda need not be moved.) After debate has begun, a motion may be withdrawn by the mover with the unanimous consent of Senate, or by a simple majority vote without debate.
 - (d) A motion may be presented and voted upon with or without discussion.
 - (e) A motion on the floor of Senate may be referred to a committee by the carrying of a second motion to this effect, which is debatable and is passed by a simple majority.
 - (f) A motion to postpone consideration of a motion on the floor of Senate may be moved at any time. If seconded, a motion to postpone consideration is debatable. If the motion to postpone is carried by simple majority, no further discussion of the original motion is allowed; if the motion to postpone is defeated, debate of the initial motion may continue.
 - (g) A motion to lay on the table halts consideration of the pending motion immediately. It must be seconded, is not debatable, and may be passed by a simple majority. It should be employed only when Senate wishes to lay the pending motion aside temporarily when a matter of immediate urgency has arisen.
 - (h) A motion to amend a motion on the floor of Senate may be moved at any time. If seconded, the motion to amend may be debated and voted upon, to be passed by simple majority. Regardless of the outcome, debate of the original motion may continue, with further motions of amendments proposed and voted upon. Once all discussions are complete, including voting upon all motions of amendment, the original motion, in amended form if such amendments were carried, is put to a vote in its entirety.
 - (i) Upon the agreement of Senate by general consent or by motion, a motion on the floor, that is presented in more than one part, may be divided into two or more related parts, and each part voted on as if it were a distinct question; provided that each part, if approved, is separately a question that can be acted upon if none of the other parts is carried.
 - (j) When a motion on the floor consists of several independent parts, one or more parts must receive separate consideration and vote at the demand of a single member.
 - (k) A motion to adjourn may be made at any time. When seconded, it is not debatable, must be voted upon immediately and requires a simple majority vote in the affirmative to pass.
- (iii) Voting at Senate shall be conducted in the following manner:

- (a) For purpose of elections, all votes will be by ballot. Normally all other votes will be by a show of hands, and a simple affirmative majority or lack thereof will be recorded. In those circumstances where there is a motion passed to have a recorded vote or a vote by ballot, this shall be done and will be reflected in the minutes.
 - (b) The Chair may not vote except when the Chair's vote changes the outcome, or as mentioned in section 3 (v) (iv). A tied vote defeats a motion requiring a simple majority to pass.
- (iv) Debate at Senate shall be conducted in the following manner:
- (a) Any member of Senate who wishes to speak must be recognized by the Chair.
