

NW Public Presentations

Winter & Spring 2017 Schedule – 12:00 pm to 1:00

January 11th

Adam Perry (University of Fort Hare, Eastern Cape, South Africa) – “Cultural Identity Expressed in Regional Housing: A Case Study from South Africa”

January 18th

(*evening; *to be confirmed) -- Judy Thompson (UNBC First Nations Studies) – “Tahltan Language Revitalization”

January 25th

Rob Bryce (UNBC Continuing Studies) – “Historical Features and Sites on the Skeena River”

February 8th

Laurent Janssen (BC Ministry of Transportation & Infrastructure) – “Avalanche Phenomena”

February 22nd

Carol Harrison – “Prince Rupert’s Miller Bay Indian Hospital”

March 8th

Charity Peal (School District 92) – “Aboriginal Education”

March 22nd

Debra Stokes (UBC) -- “Can Large Resource Developments Contribute to Sustainability in First Nations Communities?”

April 5th

David Bowering (M.D.) and Greg Knox (Skeena Wild) – “Sulphur Dioxide Pollution: Health Impacts and Mitigation Options”

May 2nd

Elee Kralji Gardiner (poet) – “readings from ‘Serpentine Loop’”

This is one of several UNBC lecture series:

Natural Resources and Environmental Studies Colloquium, <http://www.unbc.ca/nres-institute/colloquium-series>

- perspectives on natural resource management issues, hosted by UNBC’s Natural Resources and Environmental Studies Institute
- Friday afternoons, 3:30 to 4:30 p.m.
- available by web streaming or archived recordings: see <http://www.unbc.ca/nres-institute/colloquium-webcasts>

Global Friday Speaker Series, <http://www.unbc.ca/international-studies/global-friday-speaker-series/global-friday-speaker-series-fall-2016/winter-2017>

- a forum for those interested in all things ‘global,’ hosted by UNBC’s International Studies program
- most Fridays, 12:00 to 1:20 p.m.
- web-streamed at <http://www.unbc.ca/livestream>, recorded and archived for download at <http://blogs.unbc.ca/globalfridays/>

Check <http://www.unbc.ca/northwest/public-presentation> for updates.

These public presentations are typically recorded and webcast (with permission of the presenters) via <http://original.livestream.com/unbcnorthwest>.

Recordings are also archived for future viewing at <http://www.unbc.ca/northwest/public-presentation>.