

CALLAGHAN, DENNIS
ORDER IN COUNCIL (ALUMNUS) - BOARD MEMBER

Dennis Callaghan is an accomplished strategic leader with almost two decades of senior executive experience across multiple industries in northern B.C. As Chief Executive Officer of the ROGA Group, he oversees nine operating companies engaged in timber harvesting, infrastructure development, and utilities maintenance, with a workforce of over 300 people. Prior to his current role, Dennis was Chief Financial Officer of the Northern Development Initiative Trust, stewarding a $200 million investment portfolio and managing high impact provincial and federal economic development programs.

His tenure was marked by financial innovation and increased stakeholder confidence. Dennis holds a Master of Business Administration and a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Northern British Columbia, and is a designated Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA, CMA). He remains passionate about supporting the sustainable growth and prosperity of Northern communities.
