COMING SOON

Ibolya Agoston serves the northern communities as the Executive Director Professional Practice and Clinical Learning at Northern Health. Having lived in the northeast for over 20 years, Ibolya held various point of care and leadership roles at local and regional levels. Ibolya has also worked as a Social Worker at Essex County Council in the UK and Bethany Social Services in Romania. She is an engaged community member, having served on different boards and as a Volunteer for Victim Services with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

Ibolya is a PhD in Nursing candidate, holds a Master of Science in Nursing from Trinity Western University, a Bachelor of Arts in Social Work from the University of West, and a Diploma in Health Sciences from Homerton College. Ibolya is a strong advocate for excellence and accessible education in the north and for the north. Her extensive experience in healthcare, regulatory practice and social services is invaluable in supporting UNBC's mission to provide inclusive and equitable education.
