

MORRISON, TREVOR
ORDER IN COUNCIL - BOARD MEMBER

Trevor Morrison is a proud member of the Gitxsan Nation in Northern British Columbia, with over 30 years of experience in financial and administrative management within the Gitxsan community. He has further expanded his expertise in business management through education at Harvard Business School and by earning his Certified Aboriginal Professional Administrator (CAPA) designation, alongside pursuing his MBA at Cape Breton University.

Trevor has held several key positions, including CEO of Lake Babine Nation and CEO of Kyah Development Corporation (Witset First Nation). He has also served on numerous boards, including as Vice President of the Aboriginal Financial Officers of B.C. and Director for the B.C. First Nation Gaming Revenue Sharing GP. Trevor's deep-rooted traditional knowledge and values help shape and advance initiatives that benefit First Nation communities, particularly in business development and governance.
